GlobalConnect Appointed Avaya Connect Platinum Partner

Sydney, 10 March, 2011 GlobalConnect Australia, a leading provider of unified communications and contact centre solutions and services has recently been conferred with the status of Platinum Partner in the Avaya Connect global channel partner program.

This comes at a time of sustained growth for the solutions integrator, now part of the US$15 billion Essar Group.

GlobalConnect Australia is now one of the leading organisations providing Avaya solutions in Australia. Our relationship with Avaya has continued to strengthen with the sustained uptake of contact centre solutions in the marketplace combined with GlobalConnects implementation and service excellence, said Pushkar Taneja, managing director of GlobalConnect Australia.

Platinum status provides us with an excellent opportunity to further differentiate GlobalConnect as a top tier Avaya partner. We look forward to leveraging our expertise in Avayas solutions in the marketplace, armed with this new status."

As Avaya grows its business communication and collaboration business in Australia, we look to like-minded, dynamic, customer-focused and trusted channel partners to help deliver success. GlobalConnect Australia ticks all the boxes and we congratulate the whole team on its elevation to the highest Platinum status of Avaya Connect Channel Partner," said Rob Wells Managing Director Australia and New Zealand, Avaya.
