Tan Towels: The never-ending summer glow

TanTowelÂ® are pleased to announce that their 50ml On the Glow moisturiser comes free with any towellete pack purchase.

Brisbane, Queensland, 14, May, 2012As you say good bye to summer this season you dont have to say good byeto your summer glow, you can hold on to it with TanTowel tanning towelettes.

TanTowel has a long proven history to back their products. TanTowel wasincorporated in 1998 by Australian-born Lori Braun, the president and owner ofTan Towel. Loris dream to create the ultimate self-tanning product came truewith her creation of the patented process of the tan towel, which she startedresearching in her hometown of Melbourne, in 1997.

Lorisdesire to produce a product that would provide a healthy, natural looking glowthat was simple to apply, odorless, no mess, and would not streak, brought herto the United States where she was able to achieve all of the product standardsand quality that she demanded.

Withcontinued advancement, the ever-growing Tan Towel business has seen and willcontinue to see the same care and quality of products being added to our line.Loris vision has not only exceeded expectations for herself and millions ofcustomers all over the world, but has helped in the education of the sun damagethat leads to skin cancer.

TanToweltowelettes are infused with a clear self-tanning formula which works with theproteins and amino acids in your skin to produce a healthy and natural sunlesstan in just a few hours. TanTowel Plus is formulated to activate a deeper,darker shade. TanTowel towelettes give you a quick and even application fromhead to toe with no streaks, mess or fuss.
