The five-day Cornwall Crusader takes travellers in the footsteps of King Arthur through England's west countryside and then on to Cornwall, where crashing waves contrast against rugged cliffs. Travellers will get ferry transfers in the UK, transport by bus, a local Haggis tour guide and taxes, plus a free Lonely Planet guidebook from just $365* for student and from $379* for adults.

Accommodation and airfares are not included, but can be arranged by Student Flights in conjunction with the tour.

Departures scheduled between May and October 2011. The prices are available for sale until October 1, 2011.
