

Do Business and Support Charity at CCBiz Christmas Cocktails

Join the CCBiz carnival when it sets up for one festive night only at Ettalong Beach later this month and have the chance to win more than $5000 in business prizes.

CCBiz networking group is holding a Christmas Cocktail charity event to bring the coasts business community together to raise money for the Central Coasts Child Abuse Prevention Service (CAPS). Hosted by Cindy Steele from the Central Coast Womens Network and Melissa Cooper from The Art of Intimacy, and with carnival-themed entertainment including Drumballa, tarot card readers and a DJ, the night will be one business owners are sure to remember. Held at the Ettalong Mantra Hotel at 7pm on Friday, 27 November, tickets for the event are $76 and selling fast at www.ccbiz.com.au. Entertainment, canaps and drinks are included in the ticket price, but bring extra money for the silent auction and your lucky charm for the raffles! CCBiz coordinator Nicole Hammett, said the event was shaping up to be a specular evening. Central Coast businesses have really got behind our first major function as a group and were making sure it will be a fun and relaxing evening that showcases the business talent we have in the region and raise money for Central Coast CAPS, Nicole said.
