

EDUCOM Expands Queensland Operations

EDUCOM Holdings Pty Ltd, a leading IT training and certification company, has increased its commitment to the Queensland IT training market with the appointment of Curtis Chappell as State Manager for the recently formed Dialog/EDUCOM partnership, effective immediately.

Based in Brisbane, Mr Chappell will be responsible for maintaining and growing EDUCOMs major Queensland client base as well as progressing custom technical training solutions and telephony partnerships.

Im looking forward to building strong relationships with our current clients in Queensland, as well as exploring partnerships with new clients and IT vendors, Mr Chappell said.

EDUCOM and Dialog both have an excellent reputation as premier national IT service companies in Australia, and Im excited about leveraging the synergy developed through this partnership in Queensland, he said.

Mr Chappell brings over eight years of knowledge and experience in the IT training industry. Prior to joining EDUCOM, Mr Chappell was Sales Manager at Skillmaster, and has held sales and operational management positions in the US, New Zealand and Australia.

Mr Chappell holds a degree in Business Administration with honours from the University of North Florida, USA, at which he worked as an accounting/computer tutor for the duration of two years in his spare time. He is a keen traveller who has surfed since the age of 10.
