

EMERSON RANKS AMONG TOP 100 GLOBAL SOFTWARE AND SERVICES PROVIDERS

Company Earns No. 76 Spot On Software Magazine's 2009 List Of Top Software Players

ST.

LOUIS Sept. 22, 2009 Emerson (NYSE: EMR) is ranked No. 76 on Software Magazine's 2009 list of the world's largest software and services providers, illustrating the global technology and engineering company's success in expanding its customer offerings.

This year's ranking by the magazine is based on total worldwide software and services revenues for Emerson's fiscal 2008, including revenues from software licenses, maintenance and support; training and software-related services; and consulting. For fiscal 2008, Emerson's global software and services revenues approached $750 million.

Our growing portfolio of software and services is a reflection of the ability of our technologies to effectively deliver reliability, precision, safety, and other business-critical applications that our customers demand, said Charles A. Peters, senior executive vice president, Emerson. The ranking by Software Magazine validates that Emerson is successfully executing on our strategy of expanding our software and services offerings across all of our business segments.

This marks the first time Emerson has been listed in Software Magazine's ranking. Aperture Technologies a developer of enterprise data center management software that is now a part of the company's Emerson Network Power business has been included in the magazine's list in the past.

In

its 27th year, Software

Magazines list is a revenue-based ranking of the worlds 500 largest software and services providers. The full list is available at <http://www.softwaremag.com>.

About Emerson Network Power

Emerson

Network Power, a business of Emerson (NYSE:EMR), is the global leader in enabling Business-Critical Continuity from grid to chip for telecommunication networks, data centers, health care and industrial facilities. Emerson Network Power provides innovative solutions and expertise in areas including AC and DC power and precision cooling systems, embedded computing and power, integrated racks and enclosures, power switching and controls, monitoring, and connectivity. All solutions are supported globally by local Emerson Network Power service technicians. Learn more about Emerson Network Power products and services at www.emersonnetworkpower.com.

About

Emerson

Emerson (NYSE:

EMR), based in St. Louis, Missouri (USA), is a global leader in bringing technology and engineering together to provide innovative solutions to customers through its network power, process management, industrial automation, climate technologies, and appliance and tools businesses. Sales in fiscal 2008 were $24.8 billion, and

Emerson is ranked 94th on the Fortune 500 list of Americas largest companies. For more information, visit www.Emerson.com.