Student Flights has a half-day adventure for travellers to get a taste of the real life, try traditional pastimes and visit local hangouts in Turkey's quaint village of Sultanahmet.

The organised adventure is led by a bilingual local guide and follows a relaxed pace, strolling the backstreets to drink tea at an old teahouse, play a game of backgammon and smoke an authentic Narglie waterpipe.

It is priced from just $AU35 and includes services of an English speaking guide, dinner and drinks with a local family, and all activities.

Daily departures.
