

Kaseya Positioned in Visionaries Quadrant of Leading Industry Analyst Firm's Magic Quadrant for Client Management Tools

Kaseya, the leading global provider of automated IT systems management software today announced it has been positioned in the Visionaries quadrant of Gartner's recently released report: Magic Quadrant for Client Management Tools (1), January 31, 2012 (2). The leading worldwide IT research and advisory firm, Gartner, evaluated vendors based on completeness of vision and ability to execute in the IT systems management market.

We are pleased with our positioning as a visionary in Gartner's Magic Quadrant this year, as it's an achievement and testimony to the great products we delivered in 2011, and the more than 10,000 customers worldwide that have chosen Kaseya to manage their IT operations, said Bob Davis, chief marketing officer and co-founder, Kaseya. We continue to innovate and execute on our vision to deliver enterprise class IT systems management solutions to everyone.

Kaseya is a robust, high-performance, single pane of glass solution for automating recurring IT tasks while providing complete visibility across all IT operations. With Kaseya, IT professionals can offer extended service capabilities with optimum service delivery. With optional configurations, maximum scalability and remote management capabilities, Kaseya delivers the rewards of IT automation to IT departments and managed service providers of all sizes.
