

Music that will soothe the soul at Sunset@Subi concert

The City of Subiaco's latest Sunset@Subi concert features the funky and versatile four-piece line up Soul Limbo, appearing on Sunday 7 February between 5.30pm and 7.30pm.

This group of musicians will incorporate a mix of instrumental and vocal soul music that will set the scene for a relaxing Sunday groove at Mueller Park, corner of Subiaco and Coghlan roads, Subiaco. The band consists of Johannes Luebbers on keyboards, Mace Francis on guitar, Wayne Slater on bass and Greg Brenton drumming for this monster groove machine. The band members are very active in the jazz, funk and rock scene around Perth. They each contribute to the formation and performances of other high quality bands and in doing so add a richness and depth to the local Western Australian music industry. Soul Limbo will play cover songs such as Time is Tight, Soul Bossa Nova, Tequilla, Little Old Money Maker, Cissy Strutt and Oye Como Va plus original tunes in the same style. The Sunset@Subi series are free community concerts that cover a mix of themes and genres suitable for all ages.
