

Network Neighborhood to Partner with 3Com in Education

Melbourne,

5th August 2009 - Network

Neighborhood has been appointed as a key partner of 3Com for the Education sector in Victoria. The appointment comes as part of Network Neighborhoods strategy to expand its services solutions in the space.

At

Network Neighborhood, we have seen that 3Coms product portfolio provides best-in-class performance, efficiency and reliability. Very importantly in the current climate, 3Com also delivers unparalleled return on investment, said Hugh Marquis, Managing Director of Network Neighborhood.

Network

Neighborhoods knowledge of customer requirements in the education sector, coupled with our extensive experience in the provision of services, means that our partnership with 3Com will offer a comprehensive solution covering both wired and wireless requirements in schools.

The

full range of Enterprise Switches, Transceivers and Wireless products as well as and Desktop products are available. Network Neighborhood will work closely with 3Com-certified product consultants and installation services to provide the highest level of industry service.

The

education sector is one that is extremely important to 3Com in Australia. We're thrilled with the new partnership and will be working closely with Network Neighborhood to expand our offerings further into this space in the coming months, said Leisha Micallef Southern Region Channel Manager, 3Com Australia.
