

Top 10 Xmas Gifts for Adults

Xbox heads the list for last minute best buys this Xmas

Despite our best intentions, buying presents for the adults in our lives is more often than not left to the last frantic minute in the silly season and done well after the kids have been sorted out. If you're hyperventilating at the thought of only 5 days left for shopping, Myer Grace Bros comes to the rescue and relieves the stress with the definitive list of the best gifts out there to make the search less painful this year.

1. The Beast Entertainment Pack $338.00

Jam packed with goodies, The Beast is the ultimate Xmas bundle brimming with entertainment options for the entire family. It contains an Xbox console and controller, an additional limited edition second controller to make it easier to play together with friends, two great games, a DVD remote control so you can watch all your favourite movies, as well as an introductory two month trial of the new online gaming service, Xbox Live so you can play your favourite games and chat with people on the other side of the world!
