With an aim to reach out to the global community and create awareness about learning solutions, Upside Learning has been participating in various expos and summits across the world. Continuing with this tradition, Upside Learning has announced today its decision to sponsor ASTD TechKnowledge 2011, an event that will see the best of learning solution providers demonstrating their solutions and services. The event will be held from 2nd to 4th February 2011, in San Jose, USA. A silver sponsor of the event, Upside Learning will be demonstrating its latest offerings in custom eLearning development, LMS and mobile learning solutions. Attendees at ASTD TechKnowledge can experience Upside Learning solutions first hand, interact with the team and discuss their learning problems and requirements. Visitors can look forward to experiencing UpsideLMS, the company's multi award-winning Learning Management System. Equipped with over 160 features, this innovative system enables organizations to deliver training in a variety of modes - classroom sessions, eLearning, virtual classes, mobile learning, social learning - in a cost-effective manner. Along with UpsideLMS, Upside Learning will also be showcasing its mobile learning solutions that could help organizations manage learning for their workforce that is constantly on the move. Visitors can also hear Upside Learning's top management present their company and other solutions at the 30 minute session. In this 3 day event full of learning opportunities, visitors can figure out how technology will give an edge to learning at their companies, with their clients, and to their own future as a learning professional. ASTD TechKnowledge is a significant event for us and gives great opportunity to showcase our solutions. We look forward to meeting attendees and discussing possible ways in which we can help them manage their learning better. said Amit Gautam, Director of Technology Solutions at Upside Learning. Upside Learning's representatives will be present at Booth No. 504 throughout the event.
