

Urban Pup proudly supports Hope Rescue's Virtual Dog Show!

Northern Ireland based retailer Urbanpup.com is proud to support Hope Rescue's Virtual Dog Show.

Starting this week and running until 20th March, Hope Rescues Virtual Dog Show is holding an emergency fundraising appeal which includes an online auction featuring stunning items donated by Urban Pup.

Urban Pup Managing Director Denis Kelly said, Hope Rescue do a fantastic job and we at Urban Pup are delighted to donate several items from across our entire range as auction prizes for the Virtual Dog Show.

Hope Rescue is a vital dogs charity which rescues stray dogs facing euthanasia from Local Authority Pounds. With over 70 dogs in their care in a difficult economic climate, Hope Rescue need a little helping hand to continue to save dogs and find them a home.

Why not enter your urban pup in the online Photo Dog Show competition? Winners will be chosen by celebrity judges Victoria Stilwell, renowned dog trainer, Chris Packham, wildlife expert, Tamara Ecclestone, television presenter and daughter of Bernie and Slavica and Beverley Cuddy, Editor of Dogs Today Magazine. Check out the show by visiting www.hoperescue.org.uk.

Denis continued, As dog lovers Urban Pup will be closely following the Virtual Dog Show. We look forward to seeing the auction winners in their outfits and to supporting Hope Rescue as they continue to provide crucial support to stray dogs.
