

Urban Pups join the millions of Royal Wedding viewers dressed in style!

Pet pooches are also getting an opportunity to join in the celebrations on 29th April when Prince William and Kate Middleton tie the knot in London thanks to the high fashion designs of specialist dog fashion retailer, Urban Pup, www.urbanpup.com.

Eye catching t-shirts featuring the union jack, the date of the nuptials and William and Kates names are available in multiple colours and priced at only 12.95.

With well over the 750 million viewers that tuned into Charles and Dianas 1981 wedding expected to watch Kate stepping up the aisle to meet her Prince, this is the opportunity to make sure even the family canine can join in with an Urban Pup special limited edition t-shirt.

Urban Pup Managing Director Denis Kelly said, The Royal Wedding is a great celebration, particularly for fashion lovers. There is a lot of anticipation about Kates wedding dress and which fashion designer she will have chosen. Make sure your dog looks the part too on 29th April in Urban Pups own high fashion Royal Wedding range.
