

VictorsFood Launches Regional Flavours Farm Gate Day Tour

Get set for an exciting day trip to Sydney's southwest market gardens

VictorsFood's Regional Flavours food tour takes you on a magical journey through farm gates and kitchen doors, with great characters and lots of exciting new food to experience.

Travel via coach to Sydney's southwest to visit local farms and producers that help supply Sydney's markets.

This fun and educational day tour takes you to Wollondilly, Picton, Thirlmere, and Leppington regions where local growers show off their produce and cook you an amazing lunch on a farm in Catherine Field. The art of cooking underground in a traditional Samoan umu oven is a highlight. The luscious peaches you get to eat are worth the ride themselves! If you're really keen, you can pick your own produce to take home for a small additional fee.

Tour Dates Wed 17 March & Sat 27 March 2010

Duration 9:00am - 4:00pm

Cost $125 per person

Inclusions
