

A Look At London Backpackers Modernized Youth Hostel

London Backpackers has undergone major refurbishment and are determined to banish the myth that budget travel means putting up with second best once! They welcome travelers and students from Australia & New Zealand on budget travel.

This central London Backpackers hostel believes that guests should have to settle for anything but the best, so have given every room and dormitory a re-fit, bringing the décor, fixtures, and fittings bang up to date and creating a truly 21st Century hostel experience. One thing that hasn't changed to the hostel is the high-quality experience they offer. Guests from all corners of the globe can enjoy not just modernized and very stylish accommodation but also fully fitted cooking, bathing and laundry facilities, a shared lounge and games room for socializing at the end of a day exploring London, free Wi-Fi, free linen and towels and access to a wealth of free literature to help them plan sightseeing during their stay. Throw in attentive and friendly staff are ready to help visitors organize things like a plane, rail and coach tickets, so they have the complete package.

The Hostel is located just 20km from London Heathrow Airport, and that's only a 90-minute journey on the London Underground. With a tube stop just around the corner and 24-hour buses running from a bus stop over the road, the hostel is the perfect base from which travelers can explore everything this fantastic city has to offer. Sights such as the London Eye, Buckingham Palace, and Hyde Park are all within quick and easy reach, and if they want to enjoy the nightlife of Soho or Covent Garden then they can do it knowing that they've got a comfortable bed waiting for them back at the hostel. Guests can take advantage of their direct booking option by visiting the website at <https://www.ukhostels.com/au/>, where it's quick and easy to book the accommodation they need, from a single room for one to a dormitory for a group of travelers. As well as convenience, direct booking option offers guests the promise of the cheapest possible prices.
