

AAA City Removalist Recently Moved Karl Stefanovic & His Family into Their New Home in Sydney

We were humbled and honoured to have been the removalist company chosen to safely pack and transport their precious belongings.

AAA City Removalist was hired by Karl Stefanovic, Australia's favourite television personality. The TV presenter and his wife Jasmine have engaged the services of AAA City Removalist for the second time in 12 months, this time moving into their own property. We were humbled and honoured to have been the removalist company chosen to safely pack and transport their precious belongings.

Karl Stefanovic is one of the most popular television presenters and journalists in Australia. As a co-host of Nine Network's breakfast program Today, Karl has entertained, informed and engaged with us on a daily basis with interesting news stories from Australia and around the world. Having won the Gold Logie for Most Popular Personality and the Silver Logie for Most Popular Presenter in the past, he's become something of a global sensation over the years. It's not an exaggeration to say that people from all over the world love this man's quintessential Aussie humour. The millions of views on YouTube for his clips from the Today show are proof enough of that.

The AAA Difference

Our Expertise Enhances Your Moving Experience

Karl is not the first celebrity we've moved and will definitely not be our last. So, what's the secret to our success? It's simple, really. People see the value in hiring an Experienced Removalist like us. After all, you can't get an average rating of 4.6 stars on Google reviews, Product Review, Facebook and Trust Pilot unless you consistently deliver quality and live up to your customers' expectations. We understand that it's not easy for you to trust someone else to handle your valuables with care. We want your experience with us to be positive in every sense of the word. Since 2005, we've perfected the art of moving, having carried out thousands of residential, commercial, interstate and country relocations.

We Take the Stress Out of Your Move
