

Australian Regtech Startup Partners with World's Leading Risk Authority Peter Deans

We are immensely proud to announce our next of many steps to evolve a total risk and compliance operating system, teaming up with one of the world's leading authorities on risk, Peter Deans, unleashing his 52 Risks® library into the 6clicks product suite.

The former Chief Risk Officer and creator of the 52 Risks® management framework, has provided the global business landscape with a definitive risk collection that can be adopted by any company, in any industry, anywhere, any time.

6clicks offers a next generation Governance, Risk and Compliance (GRC) platform that revolutionises the way organisations mature their risk management and compliance capabilities. Together, with a suite of products including a curated and customisable content marketplace, white-label capability for advisors and mobile app “6clicks Risk Review for Teams”, companies can now arm themselves with breakthrough abilities to navigate the complex and ever-evolving regulatory environments at low cost.

6clicks CEO and co-founder Anthony Stevens shared the good news last night, saying, ‘This partnership makes it so much easier for companies to increase awareness, think through and act on risks facing their business. We’ve combined technology innovation and the best content out there’.

Mr Deans, said, ‘I am excited to be partnering with 6clicks and seeing the 52 Risks® framework available to business owners, directors, executives and risk managers all over the world. It was my vision with 52 Risks® to create a universal framework that can assist businesses manage the full spectrum of business risks they face’.

Mr Deans added, ‘6clicks provides a leading edge, platform for these risks to be identified and managed, taking an enterprise wide view. Even for smaller enterprises, the number and complexity of risks that each business faces today requires a technology solution. 6clicks and 52 Risks® will enable all stakeholders to more effectively identify and maintain oversight and control of their risks’.

We are pumped here in the office. Stay tuned for more good news!

The (rapidly growing) 6clicks global community.
