June 4, 2018 - A Lottoland Australia customer has become an instant millionaire, winning $1,000,000 on a Kenoland Draw, company CEO Luke Brill announced today.

"We're absolutely delighted for Kevin, who is the latest in a long line of customers to win big with Lottoland Australia," Mr. Brill said.

"Since Lottoland Australia started about 24 months ago, we've paid out more than $35 million in winnings to our customers right here in Australia.

"We've attracted roughly 700,000 customers in this time, and we continue to grow rapidly because we provide the opportunity to bet on the biggest and best overseas lotteries in the world." Mr. Brill continued.

The 30-year-old Ipswich customer, who has asked that his real name not be used, had been a registered customer of Lottoland Australia for less than a month before his win. He had decided to "have a little go" and placed his bet of $1 to achieve a prize of $1 million AUD.

When Lottoland called to notify the man of his win, he was "beyond excited", with plans to use his new found fortune to pay off his mortgage and secure his kids financial future.
