

Congratulations to Dr Megan Clark AC

Australian Academy of Science Medal winner 2019

The Board of the Space Industry Association of Australia extends their congratulations to Dr Megan Clark AC on receiving the prestigious award from the Australian Academy of Science in recognition of her contribution to Australian science and technology.

Dr Clark has been honoured with an Australian Academy of Science medal. "The medal is awarded to a person outside the Fellowship who has, by sustained efforts in the public domain, significantly advanced the cause of science and technology in Australia or who has made a substantial contribution to the Academy," President of the Australian Academy of Science, Professor John Shine said.

Chair of the SIAA, Mr Rod Drury, said "I am extremely pleased that the immense contribution of Dr Clark to science and technology in Australia has been recognised by this eminent body. I commend the Academy of Science on their selection of Dr Clarke AC and businessman Peter Yates AM.
