

GFChart sponsoring WordCamp Sydney 2019

GFChart has been announced as a sponsor of 2019 WordCamp, Sydney.

What is WordCamp?

WordCamp is a WordPress conference over two days packed with talks from industry experts who are sharing their knowledge with the attendees. There are no sales pitches, just educational content. Each day has two types of tracks, Business & Marketing, and Designer & Developer track.

Who should attend WordCamp?

WordCamp Sydney is for designers, developers, marketers, business owners, and everyone in between that use WordPress.

When is WordCamp?

November 16 & 17, 2019 – University of Technology, Sydney

Why is GFChart a Sponsor of WordCamp?

GFChart is a globally used extension for Gravity Forms to produce business reports for web developers, designers and website owners. GFChart is an active member of the WordPress community and aims to help users build their business utilising great tools.

If you collect data from customer enquiry forms, surveys, booking requests, or quizzes, then you'll understand that the data alone can be difficult to interpret until you see it in graphs and charts. That's where GFChart helps.
