

Holy funky furniture legs Batman!

Legheads™ adds two new superhero-themed colours to their range.

MEDIA RELEASE: 21 June 2018

Goodbye plain, average storage...! Kapow! Take that dull, boring sofas...! Thwack! Legheads™ is taking ordinary furniture and transforming it with colours that are out-of-this-world.

Legheads replacement furniture legs are now even brighter and more vibrant with the addition of two brand new colours to their range. With a fun superhero theme, the two new colours are Captain America Blue and Daredevil Red. Legheads now offers a total of eight fresh hues, adding to the original Freesia Yellow, Cayenne Red, Hemlock Green, Placid Blue, Bright White and Jet Black.

To celebrate the launch, Legheads has a Giveaway Competition offering a set of free legs to each of 30 lucky winners. No purchase is necessary and you can choose from any of our traditional colours or the new 'Captain' or 'Daredevil'. With this cool competition, anyone can enjoy updating their IKEA and other furniture easily with Legheads.

Legheads designer Todd said, "We wanted to expand our range with some fun, eye-catching new colours. I hope fans of Legheads will love our heroic new colours as much as we do."

Legheads are Australian-designed, vibrant and colourful replacement furniture legs and furniture risers which fit any piece of furniture than can take a hanger bolt. Our native creations are IKEA compatible with the M8, 8mm hanger bolt included. This means they fit most IKEA sofas and European, Canadian, Asian and Australian-made furniture including sofas, armchairs, footstools, storage and beds.

All Legheads products come with a 100% satisfaction money back guarantee, no questions asked. The furniture legs come in packs of four and normally retail from AUD39.95.

Visit the Legheads website or social media channels for free video tutorials on IKEA hacks and custom furniture ideas.
