Adventure World Launches India Brochure

Adventure World has officially launched its new India Brochure for 2010/11, showcasing its unique, in-depth tailor-made journeys for travellers to India, Nepal, Bhutan and Sri Lanka. This year's comprehensive brochure includes three segments of product offerings with budget, traditional and luxury options to suit all styles of traveller. With top selling tours highlighted throughout the brochure, also new for this year are free private car upgrades and Lonely Planet destination information so that agents can be better informed when selling Adventure World product to their clients. With Adventure World's unique independent private car journeys as well as luxury rail options and small group tours, the 2010/11 India brochure offers a wider range of distinctive experiences within India. New tours include the five day Kerala Backwater Cruising Extension starting from $855 per person, twin share, exploring the water wonderland of canals, lakes and lagoons; and the seven day Himalayan Village Walk Tour from $1,678 per person, twin share. To order Adventure World brochure stock from TIFS go to www.tifs.com.au or visit India holidays to download a brochure. In celebration of the brochure launch, Adventure World has released an early bird booking sale for its Classic India Small Group Tour, offering a huge saving of $600 per couple.
