[Miami, Florida]: Inspire PR Media today announced it has signed with Miami based Chase Your Dreams Productions to act as their Public Relations and Publicist team, assisting with increasing brand awareness worldwide. Inspire PR Media is excited to partner with Chase Your Dreams Productions to provide a platform to spread their filmmaking vision of hope and inspiration during a post-pandemic cinematic landscape.

About Inspire PR Media: Inspire PR Media is a truly international public relations company with a team, and clients hailing from all over the globe.

Whether with new, or long-standing clients, they love the thrill of finding fresh angles, projects, and media to energize and engage with the public.

Their objective is to impart a genuine narrative conveying inspirations that bring hope that change is truly possible through the media.

About Chase Your Dreams Production: Founded in 2005 by the inspirational husband and wife team, Rick and Elaine Kercheff-Roberts, Chase Your Dreams productions remains true to their filmmaking vision of providing original content to their film audience. Their first feature film O2 Negative won the 22nd Season of the Calcutta International Cult Film Festival. It was officially selected in the 2018 Prince of Prestige Academy Awards and 2018 Auckland International Film Festival. It also received an Honorable Mention at the prestigious Silver Scream Film & Comic Festival.

The 2015 short film One Last Breath was selected as part of the Paterson Falls Film Festival and Flathead Lake International Cinemafest. Moreover, it was officially invited by the HollyShorts Film Festival and received a screening invitation by Miami Indie Film Festival.

They are currently in post-production with an assortment of feature films, short films and television series. These cover a range of genres, including, action-adventure, science fiction and family adventure.

"This is an exciting time to be involved with an ambitious film-making company of this magnitude and seeking to make a genuine and meaningful impact on the silver screen," says Sarah Andrew, Managing Director at Inspire PR Media.
