

Insurance Business names Australia's top brokers

Insurance Business magazine has just released its 2016 Elite Brokers ranking, featuring 30 of the best-performing brokers

Insurance Business magazine, for the fourth consecutive year, ranks and celebrates the top insurance brokers in Australia in its 2016 Elite Brokers list.

The Elite Brokers ranking system means that it is not simply those with the biggest portfolios or the largest clients that come out on top. The methodology used includes a range of criteria such as client retention and percentage of new business to ensure a level playing field across the industry.

The whole process narrowed it down to a select group of 30 insurance brokers who are at the top of their game.

"Insurance brokers continue to do excellent work for the wider community, and it's our privilege to be able to recognise a small handful of those high achievers here" said Insurance Business editor Tim Garratt.
