

Introducing The Newest Trending Vegan, Cruelty Free & No Nasties Facial Mask

derma aesthetics, exclusive distributors of derma individuals, is pleased to unveil their newest facial mask, epi nouvelle+ naturelle. The mask is expected to be the fastest trending 100% vegan, cruelty-free, pure and natural facial mask across Australia in 2019. Containing no preservatives and no nasties, the mask has been formulated in Germany with the principles of Corneotherapy in mind. Reika Roberts, Co-Managing Director of derma aesthetics said, "We know Australians are looking for more natural options that are vegan and cruelty-free, so we're thrilled to introduce the epi nouvelle+ naturelle mask specifically based on demand. We pride ourselves on keeping ahead of trends globally as well as locally. The demand for vegan masks has been higher than ever before, so we're expecting a large number of salon enquiries over the coming weeks." The soft and flexible surface of the mask follows the facial outline like a second skin, providing the closest moisturising, cooling and skin smoothing properties. Simone Vescio, Co-Managing Director of derma aesthetics said, "We're proud to announce our new facial, with the addition of the epi nouvelle+ naturelle, is suitable for all skin types and conditions. It's also suitable for people with perioral dermatitis, acne, allergic skin reactions and sunburn." The new mask brought to you by derma aesthetics can be applied directly to the skin after microneedling, after peels, microdermabrasion, laser, IPL, skin resurfacing treatments and anti-wrinkle injections. Benefits of the new epi nouvelle+ naturelle mask include: Dramatic reduction of swelling, redness, and itching Moisturising, cooling and soothing properties Supports skin regeneration Improves complexion Reduced downtime of treatments that cause inflammation 100% sterile enabling intraoperative use 100% vegan and cruelty-free Cellulose with no preservatives or additives Pure and natural ingredients Can be used in conjunction with active ingredients derma aesthetics epi nouvelle+ naturelle facial masks are available individually for AU$36.20 each or as a 4 pack for AU$144.80 in leading salons across Australia.
