

JURA Australia release new sustainable Click and Clean Mini Tabs

JURA Australia is thrilled to announce that their new Milk System Cleaner Mini Tabs are now available, allowing machine owners to enjoy their specialty milk-based coffees, with cleaning now just a click away. No more over-pouring of the solution, the new mini tabs not only dose the correct amount every time but are more sustainable thanks to the reduction in product wastage and their refillable containers. George Liakatos, JURA Australia's General Manager says, "There is a long history of pronounced awareness of environmental issues and sustainable use of resources and energy at JURA. This explains why our original milk system cleaner contains no phosphates. The optimised formula guarantees optimal hygiene for your milk system while protecting the environment at the same time." Together with JURA's automatic cleaning program, the new mini tabs effectively remove milk fats and proteins. This keeps the tubes clean and hygienic for consistently fine, and consistently delivers light-as-air milk foam for those who enjoy a café latte, cappuccino, macchiato and flat white in outstanding quality. Key facts about the new Milk System Cleaner (mini tabs): - Easy to use. - Always the right amount. - The mini tabs ensure safe and hygienic use in just one step, simply click & clean! - Keeps the tubes clean and hygienic for consistently fine, light-as-air milk foam. - Phosphate-free. - Refillable for even less waste. The new JURA Milk System Cleaner (mini tabs) are available now at an RRP of $24.99, or for a refillable bottle for $22.99 from JURA Australia online, Harvey Norman, David Jones, The Good Guys, JB Hi-Fi Home and selected electrical stores nationally.
