Kazoik is please to announce that it is now able to offer it's customers Humm as an option to pay for the goods and services on the site.

Kazoik has had many new developments on the site including Deals and the introduction Kazoik for Business.

"We are aware that people are looking for a good deal but don't always have money at hand to take advantage of these great deals, so we partnered with Humm to offer interest free payments over 5 equal amounts", says Brett Levy, Co-Founder of Kazoik.

Humm is available on both the Kazoik events as well as the Deals. Once you have been lucky enough to win the auction or if you are just taking advantage of the weekly deals you can check out with Humm now as an option over and above credit cards and paypal.

Don't forget to attend the weekly event on Wednesday 2nd December at 8pm AEST
