KONCHECK Is Now Offering: Police Check + VEVO Check

Check Visa Details and Conditions For Visa Holders

National Police Checks and VEVO Check (Visa Entitlement Verification Online) Work Entitlement Checks are crucial for Australian employment. They ensure a safe working environment and validate an individual's legal working rights in Australia.

KONCHECK is an online service powered by Konze Enterprise Pty Ltd. It allows individuals to complete their police checks online in a convenient and secure way.

Criminal background checks and employment screening are necessary in industries such as healthcare, transport, education, construction, security, hospitality, and more.

Simultaneously, a Right to Work check is also mandatory for every Australian Visa holder to prove their working rights, as every visa holder has different working conditions. An Australian work entitlement check from KONCHECK is suitable for many visa categories such as Bridging Visas, Student Visas, Temporary Graduate Visas, Working Holiday Visas, Provisional Visas, and more.

KONCHECK has a fully online, fast and secure application process. It is accredited by the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission, and the certificates are valid across all Australian states and territories.

Whether it is a Police Clearance Check or VEVO Work Entitlement Check, KONCHECK can do both online in just 5 easy steps. The former's certificate can be obtained within 1-2 business days, while for the latter, it is instant!

Here is a quick feature-list of KONCHECK:

- ACIC (Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission) accredited police check provider
- Quick turn-around time
- Secure online payment
- Track applications on-the-go
- User-friendly application process
