

Lacework inspires new platinum china collection

A graceful, classic collection, Villeroy & Boch's White Lace combines simple shapes with a high-quality platinum décor, reminiscent of the delicate lace and embroidery popular in the world of haute couture.

Just as sumptuous clothing and the finest cloth have been adorned with lacework for centuries, this opulent bone china collection will make a precious family heirloom for the modern bride.

White Lace is inspired by Villeroy & Boch's classic Anmut style, injecting it with further elegance and modernity. Highly versatile, the cool silvery shimmer of White Lace can be effectively mixed and matched with crisp white or coloured tableware to create different moods and individual table settings. A White Lace Mosaic plate infuses further luxury and rich coloured napery makes an ideal accent.

The collection consists of bread, salad and dinner plates plus platters, bowls, serving dishes, teapot, creamer, sugar pot and cups. Villeroy & Boch's long-stemmed Arden Laneglassware perfectly complements the range and new sleek, stainless steel Arpeggio cutlery completes the look. Villeroy & Boch's White Lace range is available from selected department stores and The House of Villeroy & Boch, Chatswood (NSW) and Glenside (SA). It can also be purchased online from Villeroy & Boch's e-Shop: <http://eshop.villeroy-boch.com/au/>. RRP from $32.95.
