

Launched - New Website Delivers Money Making Opportunities to your inbox

Recommended Opportunities launches to industry acclaim

Recommended Opportunities, a brand new wealth creation website launched successfully on September 1st 2010. The website specializes in delivering to you free, only the very best in educational, wealth creation and money making opportunities online. The website caters particularly to the Australian and New Zealand markets, although accepts applications from all countries. Co creators Nicci Barnes and Lee Bush add this latest web based business to their success portfolio. Both have extensive experience in the area of online business and money making opportunities and this business adds to the current arsenal of: Business Academy Online, UM Direct, Lead Generation Specialists and The Webonaire. Recommended Opportunities is not only a website designed to bring you online, wealth creation and money making opportunities that you are specifically interested in, it is also an excellent resource of information for entrepreneurs via their ongoing blog. The blog was launched on September 1 2010 with access to the website. Companies are lining up to be promoted and showcased by the specialized service. A free service, it is already attracting mass attention. For more information and to register for your money making opportunities, go to <http://www.Recommended Opportunities.com>