LOCAL BUILDER WINS NATIONAL AWARD

FOR BEST CUSTOM HOME OVER $1 MILLION

Ducon was recently announced winner of the HIA 2009 winner for the Best Custom Home over $1 million in the construction industry. In addition to this award, local builder Ducon won in the category Best small commercial project for the Cranbourne golf club and was the runner-up for Best Town House for a project in Richmond.

Winners were chosen from 133 businesses across Victoria by a judging committee, with the HIA-CSR Housing Awards representing the pinnacle of achievement in Australia's residential building industry.

This award follows a recent string of HIA Victorian Housing awards for Ducon over the last few years in several categories, including Victorian Host trainer of the Year and OH&S Trainer of the year.

CEO of Ducon, Peter Mason, said, "We were delighted to win these HIA Awards. Being recognised by the Housing Industry of Australia is the highest recognition you can receive as a builder and this fantastic result makes me proud of the company's achievements and great team work. 2010 looks set to be another great year for Ducon as we look forward to new projects and many new awards of course!"

Ducon is medium sized construction company, based in Clayton and offers construction services in including high-end residential, commercial, retail fitout and maintenance.
