

Madeleine Hicks Real Estate Announces Expansion with a North Lakes Office

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 7 January 2019

Madeleine Hicks Real Estate (MHRE) announced today its expansion into the Moreton region with the opening of its North Lakes office. This expanded presence enables them to deliver outstanding real estate services right across North Brisbane and the Morton regions.

Over 15 years in business, Madeleine Hicks has been offering a full range of real estate and property management solutions that have enabled families to relocate across Brisbane, Australia and overseas. With the support of a strong, dedicate team of real estate professionals, MHRE has built a reputation of providing excellent customer service while maintaining a friendly customer focus. Their client base, includes many people who have used their services two, three and more times. As a result, MHRE has enjoyed steady growth and they expect this trend to continue into 2019 and beyond.

"We're excited to open our new office in South East Queensland's fastest growing metropolitan area. It will enable us to provide our Madeleine Hicks level of service to even more clients," said Justin Hicks, Sales manager MHRE. "With our presence in the Brisbane marketplace, we can confidently meet the growing demands of our customers in the Morton region.

We were repeatedly asked by our existing clients to help them in the North Lakes area, so with a sales team that has almost doubled in the past few months, we are ready to enter into this market with our capacity at an all-time high."

"Given MHRE's legacy as a highly awarded real estate firm and the fact that the North Lakes region represents South East Queensland's fastest moving real estate market; it only made sense that we expand our operations into this key region." said Madeleine Hicks, Director of MHRE.
