

Media release: Official trailer & poster for Aussie film STREAMLINE

Umbrella Entertainment announces national cinema release - September 2

Starring Jason Isaacs, Levi Miller, Laura Gordon

Duration: 88 minutes Rated: MA

Umbrella Entertainment is proud to announce the theatrical release date of its latest quality Australian cinematic drama, STREAMLINE - starring Jason Isaacs, Levi Miller and Laura Gordon - which will screen in cinemas nationally on September 2, 2021.

The feature film debut of writer/director Tyson Wade Johnston, STREAMLINE will have its World Premiere at Melbourne International Film Festival in August, followed by regional screenings as part of the MIFF Travelling Showcase, and CinefestOZ Film Festival.

STREAMLINE is a coming-of-age sports drama about a fifteen-year-old swimming prodigy fighting to stay afloat as he faces pressure in the world of competitive sports, amidst overwhelming family problems.

Featuring a cameo performance by Australian swimming champion and Olympic gold medallist, Ian Thorpe (who is also Executive Producer on the film), the stellar cast also includes Jake Ryan, Tasia Zalar, Sam Parsonson, Hunter Page-Lochard and Joey Viera.

STREAMLINE is a Bronte Pictures production, made with assistance from Screen Queensland, Screen Australia and Pantaloni Pictures. It is produced by Blake Northfield, Nathan Walker and Jay Douglas.

STREAMLINE TRAILER LINK

MEDIA CONTACT (for review link, media kit, talent interviews):

Erin Jameson

+61 419 323 663

erin(at)jamesonandco(dot)com

FOLLOW UMBRELLA ENTERTAINMENT:

www.umbrellaentfilms.com.au

Instagram: @umbrellaentertainment Facebook: @UmbrellaEnt Twitter: @UmbrellaEnt

Contacts

Erin Jameson

+61 419 323 663

mailto:erin@jamesonandco.com