

New Regional Manager announced for Thrifty Car Rental

Thrifty Car Rental announces the appointment of Michael Stewart to the role of Regional Manager for Western Australia. Michael moves from his current role at Thrifty Car Rental as Regional Manager for North Queensland, which he has held since 2006. Operations Director Kayleen Collins said: 'We are delighted to announce Michael Stewart as Thrifty's new Regional Manager for Western Australia.' Michael has over 30 years' experience in the car rental industry and he has overseen much growth and change during his time with us in North Queensland. We are confident he will continue to ensure we deliver the best car rental experience in Western Australia too. Thrifty is the exclusive car rental partner for Australia's seven motoring clubs including RAC in Western Australia, along with NRMA, RACV, RACQ, AANT, RAA and RACT.
