

New Year's Eve goes above and beyond

2 December 2015

One of Australia's biggest customer owned banks has thrown its support behind Victor Harbor's spectacular New Year's Eve party.

Beyond Bank Australia will be the major sponsor of the 2015 event that promises to be the biggest and best yet.

"We are looking forward to joining in the annual celebrations," said Beyond Bank's Victor Harbor Branch Manager, Greg Wiese.

"It's always the biggest night of the year here and with community at the heart of everything we do at Beyond Bank, it made perfect sense to get involved."

City of Victor Harbor Mayor, Graham Philp agreed saying the event had become a highlight of the local calendar.

"We are expecting more than 10,000 people to welcome in the New Year at Warland Reserve," said Mayor Philp.

"Locals, holiday makers, children, parents and grandparents all come along for what is arguably the happiest night of the year and best of all, it's free."

Aside from the traditional midnight fireworks, there will be an earlier display for families with young children and a fantastic line-up of entertainment in the lead up to the annual countdown.

The festivities will kick off at 7.30pm with firework displays at 9.45pm and midnight. Road closures will be in place around the event area.
