

Not 'Just Car Buyers': Sydney's Unsung Heroes

We Do Much More than Car Removals

According to the Australian Bureau of Statistics, There were 19.2 million registered motor vehicles in Australia as at 31 January 2018. In addition to that, the Motor Vehicle Census 2018, the national vehicle fleet grew by 2.1 per cent between 2017 and 2018. The Australian Demographic Statistics states the preliminary estimated resident population (ERP) of Australia at 30 June 2018 was 24,992,400 people. That's a lot of cars!

The question that arises is if there are already so many cars, and we're buying more and more cars, where are the old ones going? They're either populating our landfills and polluting our drinking water or are abandoned, lying on properties of people who aren't too bothered about their real estate. What about the other old, unwanted cars in Sydney and its nearby suburbs?

Google might not give you this answer but we will - its Scrap Cars Removals! Scrap Cars Removal is a car removal and scraps car buying company that offers its free services to people who want to sell an old car in Sydney. Scrap Cars Removals has been operating their business in Sydney for a decade now. The business is profitable now, but wasn't always so, claim the founding members of the organisation. 'Scrap cars are of not much use, they are put into a machine, they come out as a box of metal. We sell that box. This business started off with the founding members picking up the cars and selling them off individually.', said Zoey from the Sales Department.

By 2013, the company had seen a change in the vision of the organisation. The board decided to make their efforts more inclined towards the benefit of the customers as well. When the popularity of the business kept growing, the leaders decided to shift the vision towards something more valuable. "We're not just scrap car buyers, or a simple car towing service. We're much more than that - we think of ourselves as the agents for a cleaner Sydney. We started taking the trash away from Sydney-siders and reusing it for better things.", said the spokesperson from Scrap Cars Removals, Sydney.

As per the company's database management, there has been a change in the kinds of benefits people have preferred the most in their customer reviews. As the city of Sydney along with Sydney-siders grew aware of the situation of our environment, there is a very clear mention of the environment-friendly process that is used.
