

NZ country head recognised in Global 100 list

Auckland – Pepper Money’s Aaron Milburn has been included in the Mortgage Global 100 list, spotlighting the outstanding industry professionals who are making a positive difference and helping drive change across the sector.

“Now in its second year, this formidable list of the biggest names in the mortgage industry was put together by NZ Adviser and its sister publications Mortgage Professional Australia, Australian Broker, Mortgage Professional America, and Canadian Mortgage Professional, taking advantage of our unique position as a global publisher reaching markets in the US, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and the UK,” says the NZ Adviser team.

“The prestigious list is a collaboration of not just renowned names – but of leaders who are actually making a difference in today’s market whether that is by making incredible advancements at their own companies, taking associations to new heights, providing education to drive the industry forward, or taking the lead on championing the key issues that can carry the industry into a new era.”

As Pepper Money’s general manager of mortgages and commercial lending for Australia and New Zealand, Milburn is responsible for the strategic direction and operating performance across the product, credit, settlements, and sales functions. He also acts as Pepper Money’s country head in New Zealand. With more than 18 years’ experience in financial services, Milburn is skilled at leading large teams, strategic planning, strategy, and execution of industry leading sales management practices. Prior to joining Pepper in 2017, Milburn gained valuable sales and distribution leadership experience at Westpac, St George, Citibank, BankWest and HBOS. He holds a Certificate IV in finance and mortgage broking, and advanced diploma of management and a diploma of financial and mortgage broking management.
