P'Nut Street Noodles Spices Up The Sunshine Coast

P'Nut Street Noodles officially opens its 11th restaurant on Saturday, 25 May in Kawana Shoppingworld, Buddina, adding to Sydney and Brisbane locations.

The official opening of P'Nut Street Noodles Kawana kicks off from 11.30am, with authentic oriental dishes bringing a taste of Asia to the Sunshine Coast.

Head Chef, Nut Kurlert, hails from Thailand and mastered the art of cooking with traditional spices, herbs and ingredients from the early age of 13 in his grandmother's Thai kitchen. He's excited to introduce P'Nut's unique flavours to the new Kawana restaurant, adding to seven existing restaurants in Sydney and three restaurants in Brisbane.

"Our Asian-inspired street menu aims to transport guests on a mouth-watering journey through the exotic hawker streets by serving favourite dishes from Indonesia, Thailand, Malaysia.

"We are the first and only restaurant in Australia to use authentic, made-from-scratch sauce bases directly from Thailand. The combination of authentic sauces and fresh, locally sourced Aussie produce creates meals that are full of flavour. We've also introduced a lighter menu with dishes under 400 calories, along with vegetarian and vegan options," says Chef Nut.

About Chef P'Nut

Chef Nut Kurlert was quite literally born into the kitchen of his grandmother's popular Thai restaurant. Growing up surrounded by the inner workings of the kitchen, it was in this little restaurant in Thailand that Chef Nut developed his love and desire to transform people's lives with food. Nut was working full-time in the kitchen from the age of 13.

Chef Nut went on to learn under and work alongside Michelin Star & Iron Chef Chumpol

Jangprai to create fresh, tasty and original sauce blends which still stand as the base for the P'Nut dishes today and can be tasted in the new Asian infusion menu to be unveiled at P'NUT Street Noodles restaurants across Australia.

Nut named his restaurant after himself to instil a sense of trust between the brand and the public, to allow his food and service to be a true reflection of himself as the first and only "nut" who is "nuts about noodles". The P'Nut brand has grown to represent handcrafted, authentic and original flavour imported from its home-grown source. Nothing says quality like P'Nut.
