

RingCentral Appoints Seasoned IT Sales Leader Peter Hughes as Regional Sales Vice President for Asia Pacific

RingCentral Australia Pty Ltd, a wholly owned subsidiary of RingCentral, Inc. (NYSE:RNG), a leading provider of enterprise cloud communications and collaboration solutions, today announced the appointment of Peter Hughes as Regional Sales Vice President for Asia Pacific (APAC). Mr. Hughes will be based at RingCentral's regional headquarters in Sydney, Australia.

Prior to joining RingCentral, Mr. Hughes was with Cisco for 16 years where he led a global team responsible for establishing new routes and channels to market for Cisco's cloud collaboration solution. During that time, he expanded his role from Director of Sales for Australia and New Zealand to Director of Sales for Asia Pacific and ultimately to Director of Global Sales. Prior to Cisco, he served for seven years as national sales manager Australia for the Siemens Hicom communications platform.

"Peter brings deep experience working with enterprises in the cloud communications space, and we're excited to welcome him to RingCentral," said Mitch Tarica, Senior Vice President of Worldwide Sales, RingCentral. "With his knowledge of the Asia Pacific channel and his proven expertise in hiring the right talent, we're confident that Peter will establish a strong and dynamic team of sales and technical experts to work with our customers both in Australia and across the region."

"I'm excited to join the worldwide leader in cloud communications as there is an enormous opportunity in APAC, which is the fastest-growing cloud communications market globally," said Mr. Hughes. "RingCentral has been expanding its presence in Australia with strong channel partnerships. Together with the team, I look forward to empowering businesses with greater mobility, customer engagement tools, and team collaboration capabilities for enhanced productivity and ultimately business success."
