More information:

The Kokoda Challenge is a team based endurance bush walking event designed to keep the Kokoda spirit of Courage, Endurance, Mateship and Sacrifice alive. It is not a race, it's about getting to the finish line as a solid team. Teams go through some of Brisbane's toughest terrain in 15km, 30km or 48km distance events, carrying all of their own food, water and supplies. There is a 20 hour limit on the 48km distance, event closing 2am Sunday 3rd.

"The stories, emotions and atmosphere of a Kokoda Challenge event is unlike anything else," eighth time Brisbane participant. We recommend being at the 7:00am or 8:00am start line and/or finish line during the day, interviewing participants, volunteers and support crews. Many are back as regular Kokodians, a lot are using this event as a training opportunity for our 96km event on the Gold Coast on 14th July. There are family teams, corporate teams, school teams, kids at the age of 10 to elderly participants over 50. There are people walking for their battle against cancer, for their ancestors who fought in WWII, for their desire to help local youth - bringing together the entire community.

All event proceeds fund our Kokoda Challenge Youth Program, changing lives of 50+ local teens a year from all backgrounds and circumstances, from high achievers to those who are disengaged and at-risk. The 14-month program involves physical endurance, community service, team building and a funded trip to Papua New Guinea to complete the real Kokoda Track and volunteer in local villages. Starting in 2004, these kids are known as 'Kokoda Kids'.
