

Statement from Shane Heal - November 18, 2016

"I faced court today on charges relating to allegations from almost eight years ago. ASIC have brought these charges forward. I am not guilty and will set about proving this."

"I understand that this case will have public interest but I ask for some privacy and an understanding that, on my lawyers' advice, I can't talk about specific details. My side of the story will eventually come out."