

Sydney Migration Agent Provides Assistance For Businesses To Comply With New Backpacker Tax Requirements

Companies provided with expert assistance to avoid penalties related to the Australian

PK Harrison Australian Visa Services is providing professional advice and assistance for businesses that currently employ, or are likely to employ working holiday makers, to comply with the new “backpacker tax” and register with the Australian Taxation Office before the deadline on January 31st, 2017. In order to avoid penalties, businesses that employ individuals who are in Australia on a 417 or 462 visa must register with the Australian Taxation Office and withhold 15% from every dollar earned by a working holiday maker up to $37,000 with foreign resident tax rates applying from $37,001.

Businesses that need assistance understanding the new “backpacker tax” can contact PK Harrison Australian Visa services on (02) 9098 9394 or visit the PK Harrison Australian Visa Services website at <https://australianvisaservices.com.au/> to book a consultation.
