

Sydney's Expert Property Management Company, LeaseTeam Creates Strategic Partnership With i4Tradies

Melbourne, Australia, October 29, 2019 – (Press Release)LeaseTeam, an expert property management company servicing greater Sydney has partnered with i4Tradies taking their property maintenance service for tenants to the next level of excellence with better process efficiency, transparency, security and compliance. Ashley Johnson, CEO and founder of LeaseTeam believes a key strategy to continuing the company's high growth is to provide pro-active maintenance that will ensure tenant happiness and in turn minimise vacancy periods.

"Our innovative investor-centric business model calls for a modern style, value added property maintenance service and we believe i4Tradies can help us deliver just that," says Johnson. "We realise that befriending technology is the only way forward to deliver higher efficiencies and better customer experiences to our tenants as well as our landlords who have trusted us to get the most of their properties. Working with i4Tradies lets us tap into the vast pool of qualified tradies and resolve issues faster."

Founder and CEO of i4Tradies, Logan Nathan has worked with a number of short-term and long-term property management groups and one thing that he finds common is how i4Tradies has truly changed the process of handling property maintenance jobs from start to finish.

"Responding to tenants' requests in a timely manner, being able to quickly get quotes from licensed and insured trades companies, tracking progress of maintenance jobs in real time and being able to resolve conflicts faster with everything recorded and saved automatically as proof of job, are some of the things that will revolutionise the property management business in the days to come," says Logan.
