

Tabletop card game Kingless now available!

Two19 Pty Ltd today announced that the all-new tabletop card game Kingless is now available for purchase worldwide at $30USD/$40AUD

Kingless is an easy to pick up, challenging to master card game. Designed for 2-6 players, the objective of the game is to compete to gain the most influence points. Kingless has been designed to be easy to learn and approachable for new players to tabletop gaming while offering veterans enough scope to plan their strategies.

Kingless rounds are short and snappy which average around 20 minutes. The player with the most influence points at the end of the round is dubbed the 'king' and the player with the least is named the 'fool'. At the beginning of the new round, the fool must give the king their most valuable card. In return, the king chooses any card they like. Take pity or attempt to retain the title, it's your choice.

Kingless launched on Kickstarter in March 2020 and successfully raised over 200% of the funding goal. The original Kickstarter is available to view at <https://www.kickstarter.com/projects/two19/kingless>
