Sandella's Flatbread brings its popular business to QLD

With over 130 stores worldwide, this fast and fresh food phenomenon is coming to Australia.

Sandella's Flatbread Cafe is opening 6 + stores in South East Queensland mid-2019 with more earmarked later in the year. Known for its fast and fresh philosophy, their modified Australian recipes will have an Australian twist.

Founder, Mike Stimola said 'We are excited to be able to bring our family business to Australia and especially Queensland. We have already commenced building our stores in Caboolture and Kallangur with others opening in Mermaid Waters on the Gold Coast and Glass House Mountains shortly after.'

Sandella's Eat Right. Right Away menu items consist of made to order wraps, salads, panini sandwiches and pizzas with stores across USA, Saudi Arabia, Turkey and Dubai. 'We have an improved and modified menu for the Australian market that we know, everyone will love'.

In 1994 when Michael J. Stimola opened a small coffee and sandwich shop, he wanted its name to reflect the two most important women in his life - his wife, Sandy and his mum, Ellajane. The first Sandella's restaurant opened in the United States in Connecticut that year. Sandella's products stood out as healthy options that were fresh, fast and delicious.
