

Thought Leader Maria Boznovska: 2019 AusMumpreneur Awards Nominee

Author, thought leader and mindset coach Maria Boznovska has been nominated in two categories in the upcoming AusMumpreneur Awards, to be held in Melbourne in September. The Sydney-based mum-of-four has garnered attention for her work in human potential and empowerment, as well as her heart-led input to her Live Gratefully community—a social group of 22,000 people who learn and grow from Maria's wisdom and guidance. Maria has been nominated in the Influencer Award and Making a Difference Award categories, in the respected 10th annual nationwide awards that celebrates mothers who make a difference in the lives of their families and their communities through business pursuits. The AusMumpreneur Awards recognise “the best and brightest in the Australian “mumpreneur” industry, acknowledging success in business, product development, innovation and customer service”. “I am earnestly grateful for the recognition I have received for my work,” Maria says. “It’s about creating freedom, flexibility and living fully self-expressed in everything I do, personally and professionally. Serving the community is a huge joy and privilege that I am grateful for each day.” “This is an award honouring women entrepreneurs who dare to dream, who courageously embrace their uniqueness and follow their passion, to be of service and to make a difference in the world. To win this prestigious award represents hope, a sense of purpose and to never ever give up on your dream.” The 2019 AusMumpreneur Awards are presented by AusMumpreneur and The Women’s Business School. Winners will be announced at a gala ceremony, to be held in Melbourne this September.
