

Total Car Collections Launch in Melbourne

Melbourne's leading car buyer is here- Selling your car is now as easy as it can be.

Total Car Collections has stormed its way in the auto wrecking market in Melbourne region. There are already quite a few auto wreckers in Melbourne region, but Total Car Collections came into being on focusing on two major factors ignored by all other car wreckers. Commitment and customer service.

Car wrecking business has always been a shady area for Melbournites as there were always complaints from the users on how they deal with them. Often reports that they did not get the amount for their car which was committed to them, and many complained that documentation is never done correctly.

Total car collection's core business value are set upon excellent customer services and standing up to their commitment as narrated by its CEO

"We would rather don't make an offer than to back up from it; our mission is to establish Melbournite's trust into car wreckers once again by providing them a high quality of services and best prices for their vehicle."
