

Travel Companies: Want to get in front of Thousands of Australian Travellers?

Expressions of Interest sought from Travel Companies

Racking your brain figuring out how to get in front of a fresh audience post Covid19? This is for you.

The Australian economy has taken a hit over the last few months with Covid19, and Australian national services company, PetCloud, want to support Australia's Tourism Industry and see thousands of operators get back on their feet with bookings.

So whether you run a chain of hotels, an airline, a farm stay, a cruise ship, a glamping or wellness retreat - they want to hear from you. PetCloud has thousands of frequent travelling Pet Owners who want to be enticed to travel domestically over the next few months.

Previous travel collaborations have landed on national breakfast tv, showcased at expos, national news sites, and have included Flights, Hotel Gift Cards, Luxury 5 Star Ocean View Rooms.

Due to previous demand, expressions of interest from travel companies are open for the next 5 days only.

---

About PetCloud: PetCloud is headed up by former travel industry executives and is Australia's most trusted national Pet Care Services Network part-owned by RSPCA Qld with over 100,000+ users.

PetCloud helps travel companies in the following ways: 1. Increase Booking Frequency PetCloud encourages EXISTING customers to book more frequently due to national availability of Pet Carers, increasing travel companies' annual revenue.

2. Access Fresh Segment of Customers PetCloud helps travel companies access NEW customers who previously experienced a barrier to travel, increasing companies' annual revenue + increase customer base.

Contacts

Deborah Morrison

1300 66 77 85

mailto:marketing@petcloud.com.au