

Trintech and Finthesize Partner to Deliver Financial Close and Reconciliation Solutions in Japan

Finthesize will resell Trintech's Adra Suite to help organizations in Japan simplify and accelerate the financial close process

DALLAS, TX and TOKYO, JAPAN / ACCESSWIRE, May 29, 2019 - (ACN Newswire) - Trintech, a pioneer and leading provider of Financial Corporate Performance Management (FCPM) software, and Finthesize, a Japanese IT solution provider that specializes in solving the challenges within the office of finance, today announced they have entered into an exclusive reseller partnership for Japan. Under the terms of the new agreement, Finthesize will have the ability to resell Trintech's Adra Suite to businesses in Japan looking to simplify and accelerate their financial close process by streamlining work, improving accuracy and reducing risk. "There is a vast market opportunity in Japan for a solution to help companies simplify and streamline critical processes in the financial close," said Darren Heffernan, President, Mid-Market at Trintech. "As we continue to expand our global presence, we are committed to providing Japanese companies with a proven software solution coupled with the local presence and resource base of a Japanese company capable of providing immediate value to customers." Currently deployed by over 1,800 companies across the globe, the Adra Suite provides cloud-based, financial close and reconciliation solutions for mid-sized companies looking to quickly increase the efficiency, control and visibility of their financial close process through: balance sheet reconciliation (Adra Balancer), financial transaction matching (Adra Matcher), and financial close management and controls (Adra Task Manager). "We are excited to offer Trintech's Adra Suite to help Japanese companies streamline the financial close process by replacing manual, error-prone processes with a proven solution," said Hiroyuki Oyama, Chief Executive Officer at Finthesize. Finthesize will provide its professional service and support for the Adra Suite to deliver a complete solution and immediate value to the rapidly growing Japanese market.
